If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. After the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by John R. Michels, St. George.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine. "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by John R. Michels, St. George.

In passing along the south part of the city of St. George, the other day, I was accosted by two respectable looking Irishmen, and the following conversation ensued:

"Say, Maisther can yer tell us where Maisther Jarviz lives?"

"Who do you mean," I said.

"I mane the man Jarviz, the mining ghentlemen who does a big bhizness in the copper mines in the wehst mountains. Don't yeh know him? Don't yeh live here? Don't yeh rade the papers aither? Sure yeh rade the Salt Lake Herald of the 7th of October; Shure yeh did? Where one of yer ladeing citizens made a report of his mining company fer three yares, and where his company had employed from 200 to 300 men and 50 teams, paid out $300,000 in that time? Shure yeh must have seen it!" And taking a paper from his pocket, he said, "See that? Bhright ham Jarviz. Do yeh know him? Where does he live? He is the man we want! We must have work! Show us his mansion."

As we were already in the neighborhood, I said "That is his place."

"Well, well. Show us where he lives."

"Well, that is where he lives."

"Now, maisther, its joking ye are. But we mhust see him for we mhust have work."

"Well, that is his residence, but he is not at home now."

"Och, be jabers, is that raelly where he lives?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, say, maisther, what's the matter with the man? Is he crazy? A man that schathered $300,000 and not lave any around his home, mhust be crazy indade! Is he married? And does his woife live in that divil uv a schanty? Why don't the city officers get afther him and compel him to remove the nuisance?" And they went off one way, growling, and I went the other holding my sides from splitting with laughter. Com.

At St. George Tabernacle.

October 18, 1896.

Councillor Edward H. Snow Presiding. President McArthur said he had just returned from Salt Lake City having attended the general conference there. Said there was nothing new made manifest, but a very good spirit pervaded all the speakers at the conference and especially President Woodruff who spoke well and looked well; and said President Woodruff bore a strong testimony to the sayings of the prophets and said all that had not been already fulfilled would all be fulfilled in the due time of the Lord. The speaker reported that President Woodruff desired all the presiding men to advise the people to pay their tithes and offerings that there may be an abundance to carry on the work of God and to provide for the poor among us, that none may lack for the comforts of life.

Elder James G. Bleak said to use President Woodruff's own words "he had a new pair of lungs and his hearing was restored to him" and although he will be 90 years old next March, he feels healthy and is cheerful and he sends his blessing particularly to the people of St. George where he has spent so many happy days, weeks, and months with this people.

Stated that we now have 366 missionaries in the Southern States who go out strictly as in days of old without purse or scrip, and the Lord provides for them according to his promise.

The speaker also said there is a great increase to the Church in Europe, and the nations of the earth generally are being kind to the Elders of Israel and thus the word of God is being received kindly by the honest of every land, and so is raising up friends to his servants in many places and the way is being opened for the truths of the gospel to be preached to the honest in many lands, and thus the gospel is being taught to the people without purse or scrip to the poor as well as the rich.
